

I do want to see any federal law that dilutes the Indiana law on telephone solicitation. We have gone from about 15 calls a night to one or two a week. I wish the commissioners to remember that I am paying for the phone service, not the telemarketers, they have no right to use an appliance they are not paying for, ban it all!!